

SEMINAR ON FUTURE POLICIES
AGAINST ROMA
DISCRIMINATION
27/28 OCTOBER 2009

Notre Dame du Chant d'Oiseau, Av. des Franciscains 3a - 1150 Brussels

Despite the progress made by the European Union over the past years in combating discrimination, Roma still face exclusion and unequal treatment. This seminar will bring together EU and member state experts, as well as Roma and non-Roma civil society representatives to discuss how Roma's equal treatment can be promoted. The discussion will focus on data collection and positive action, tools proven to be effective in fighting past, current and future discrimination.

“poverty, social exclusion and discrimination facing Roma people is simply not acceptable”

José Barroso, President of the European Commission
